LATONIA MEETING CLOSES

AFTER MANY REVERSES PRINCE HERMIS WINS THE INDEPENDENCE HANDICAP.

Views the Sport.

Cincinnati, O., July 5.—A crowd almost equaling that of Derby Day was on hand this afternoon to participate in the closing of the Kentucky spring and summer season of racing. The meetings at all the courses in Kentucky this year have greatly surpassed any formerly held. That at Latonia has been particularly brilliant and was additionally noteworthy from the fact that it witnessed a return to the patronage of the sport of some of the best people of Cincinnati who for a period had remained passive and were non-attendant during the meetings at Latonia. The patronage here this season has been remarkably good, even on inclement days and when only ordinary offerings were carded. The speculation has been of big volume and the racing keen, General Manager Hachmeister has just cause to be proud of the results achieved and is already planning on an extensive scale for the fall season of the sport.

Following a severe storm last night the track was a veritable ouagnire early today, but the superintendent of the course had his forces at work during the night and constant labor brought the course back to good condition. Ideal weather prevalled during the afternoon.

Prince Hermis, which has been racing consistently but has been unlucky in most of his starts, came into his own this afternoon when he accounted for the right hadependere Handien, worth $3,430 net to the winner, over the best lot of handicap horses that could be mustered. Hank O'Day was second and Greville, coupled with Water Witch as a stable entry, finished third. Star Jassnine saved her stakes by finishing fourth. The disappointment of the race was Hodge, which ruled a big favorite. He was on the extreme outside most of the way and the rough part of the course he was forced to traverse, coupled with the heavy impost he shouldered, brought about his undoing. The winner was well up from the start and, when strongly urged by his rider, drew out decisively from Hank O'Day, the early pacemaker. The latter stumbled and lost his rider immediately a shipped to Havana for the meeting there next winter.

S. N. Holman, general manager of the Dorval track was an arrival this afternoon and brought an architect to make a model of the Latonia plan of mutuel betting with a view to duplicating it at the Dorval track this fall. The Latonia style of mutuel machines will be installed.

E. C. Hopper, who has been one of the stewards of the Kentucky tracks, will rest at his home at Houstonville until fall. Secretary Jusper will remain at his home in Cincinnati, W. H. Shelley will go to his home in Louisville to remain until his pre-liminary duties call him to Lexington about August 15.

W. H. Laudeman, supervisor of the mutuel department, will sojourn at his summer home in Michigan. Starter Harry Morrissey will leave tonight for Gloucester, N. J., to arrange for the transfer of his family and household goods to Kentucky, where he intends to make his permanent home. He will locate near Lexington.

PHOSPHOR A CARTER HANDICAP WINNER.

Proves Himself a Great Mud Runner in a Race Where Roamer and Harmonicon Run Unplaced.

New York, July 5.—Going into an early lead and holding his opposition safe to the finish, although repeatedly challenged, Phosphor, Schuyler L. Parsons good sprinter, today accounted for the seventeenth running of the Carter Handicap. More rain was responsible for a muddy track and Phosphor showed himself to be a superlative mud runner. He picked up his impost of 116 pounds and, although put to a drive in the final eighth to outstay the lightly weighted Pomette Bleu, he did it in race horse fashion. Leo Skolny, showing quite a bit of improvement with less weight up than he has been carrying, ran into third place after being a forward contender. Reamer and Harmonicon, the top weights and the nublic choices, were always decisively outpaced. The Carter, the running of which was viewed by an immense throng, was worth $1,925 to the winner.

Second in importance to the Carter Handicap was the Clover Stakes for two-year-olds fillies. It was won by Celandria, only recently disqualified after finishing first in a race at Jamaica. Lorac, the well-backed favorite, went into an early lead which she maintained until well into the stretch, where she was challenged by the winner, and in a hard drive, in which both fillies displayed rare gameness. Celandria came away at the end to win by a length. The Clover Stakes was worth $1,525 let.

Favorites were successful in half of the races

The horses that E. W. Heffner took to Canada for H. C. Hallenbeck arrived safely back at Aqueduct today. Jockey Byrne also returned.

The Pin ran in the first race without being shood behind, as he has on several occasions. His owner, J. S. Ownbey, says he is a hard horse to plate. As there has been no meeting of the Jockey Club since his arrival, rumors to the effect that J. W. May has been refused a temporary trainer's license are without foundation.

It develops that the yearlings that F. B. Lemaire purchased at the recent sale were for John E. Madden and Charles K. Berryman.

Dave O'Leary has purchased the two-year-old See Beach from J. E. Madden.

Jockey Tommy McTaggart and Robert Gaylor were arrivals from Denver, where the former has been riding.

FOURTH OF JULY STAKES TO WATERBASS.

Turney's Good Colt Wins the Chief Fort Eric Race in a Canter-Back Bay Beaten.

Fort Eric, Ont., July 5.—Amos Turney's good colt Waterbass showed a good performance when he won the Fourth of July Stakes at Fort Eric this afternoon. He carried top weight, overcame a long lead that Squeeter raced into in the early running, and at the finish was under restraint and won be a half dozen lengths. The race was run over a deep and holding track, the going being similar to that which prevailed at Oriental Park in Cuba last winter. Track conditions accounted for many withdrawals and of the nine carded only four started. Waterbass, always a favorite with Canadian race goers, was the public choice and he made good in handsome fashion. Tactics was second and Senceler third.

Someeler third.

An immense gathering turned out and much enthusiasm was manifested. A sprint handicap divided interest with the stake race. As in the stake, there were many withdrawals, but the race furnished a splendid contest, in which four of the five starters finished in a close bunch, Bob Hensley coming from behind and getting up in the closing strides to beat Back Bay.

The Jefferson Livingston stable accounted for the opening dash, when the two-year-old Petlar won. Incidentally it was the first victory that the stable has scored on the Canadian circuit. Jockey Cooper had his first mount since his accident at Hamilton, when he rode Kate K, in the third race.

Jockey Cooper had his first mount since his accident at Hamilton, when he rode Kate K. in the third race.

Harry D. Brown, Jr., was an arrival from Kentucky. He reports that much work has been done on the Oriental Park track at Marianao since last spring. A new top dressing has been placed on the course and a system of draining installed which will obviate postponements in the future.

H. D. Brown, Sr. will shortly announce his plans for the coming season. The Cuban government has passed a bill donating a purse of $10,000 to be set aside for a race to be known as the National Cuban Derby. This stake will be the big feature of the winter meetings in Havana.

Edward Heffner departed for New York last night with the division, of the H. C. Hallenbeck stable that he brought to Canada several days ago, jockey Byrne accompanying him. The horses were consigned to the Aqueduct track on Long Island. The Finn came out of his race on Saturday in good condition, Naturally trainer Heffner was much disappointed over the colt's failure, but he was satisfied that his horse was the best and that but for propoing at the barrier he surely would have beaten Waterblossom.

Jockeys Ted Rice and J. Kederis were arrivals at Fort Erie today, Rice appears to have fully recovered from the injuries he sustained at borval when the two-year-old Phil Ungar fell with him. He will resume riding in a few days for the Amos have the two years are such disappeared to the New York track some day this week.

race-goers to witness this fast sprinter in action. Pan Zareta is probably in better form this summer than at any time in her career and in the short races at Saratoga she should give a good account of herself. It will take the best that easterners have to take her measure. The McBride stable has been highly successful this season. George Smith has won four stakes, Tom Elward one and Squeeler one. In the other three stakes in which the McBride horses started they were only beaten a head; Squeeler in one instance and Pesky twice.

George R. Senn has about decided to send his horses, which include the good plater Cardigan, to Saratoga. They will probably leave in the same car with Waterblossom and Pan Zareta.

C. D. Judd, who filled the position of track superintendent at Kenilwerth until the place was sold by August Belmont, was a visitor at Fort Erie this afternoon. Mr. Judd may go south to fill a position at one of the winter tracks.

J. S. Ward arrived from Latonia with Dodge, J. Cuneo and Howard Octs also came from Kentucky with their horses.

Starter Dade withdrew the suspension he imposed on jockey Acton on Saturday.

H. G. Bedwell has purchased the two-year-old

King Tuscan, by King James-Tuscanita, from Samuel Ross.

NO ARKANSAS RACING FOR AWHILE.

Little Rock, Ark., July 5.—Hot Springs' chances for horse racing finally were shattered today when the Supreme Court of Arkansas dism'ssed the appeal of the Arkansas State Fair Association to have the secretary of state declare the Sawyer racing bill a law. The action, a mandamus to compel the secretary to publish the bill with other legislative acts of 1915 was dismissed without a decision as to its merits. The court ruled that inasmuch as the secretary of state had published already the other acts passed, he had complied with the provisions of the constitution and that the cause for action had died automatically with the publication of the other laws. The question of the validity of the veto of Governor George W. Hays was not passed upon. The Sawyer bill was passed March 5 and signed, vetoed, re-signed and again vetoed by the governor March 11. It proposed to give Hot Springs racing under a state-commission and would have legalized pari-mutuel betting.

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

M. Garner and J. Acton were busy youths last week, each adding eight winning mounts to his score of successes in the saddle this year. This put Garner thirty-three mounts shead of his nearest competitors and also helped Acton's account materially. Unless some stroke of Ill-fortune occurs to Garner, his position as the leading rider of this year seems assured. Not only is his account of mounts won admirable, but his percentage is also good. L. Gentry and R. Goose are in a tie for second place with fifty-eight winning mounts each, but neither appears possessed of a chance to overhaul the leader. The records of the thirty most successful riders of the year are:

COMING TWO-YEAR-OLDS OF NEXT YEAR.

Lexington, Ky., July 5.—Seven of the fourteen yearlings which J. O. Keene today brought to the Kentucky Association course to be broken and trained for racing next senson are of his own breeding and are owned in partnership with his brother, G. H. Keene. They are as follows:

Bay colt by Celt—Mildred Shults.
Chestnut colt by Ormondale—Fleur de Marie (dam of Bonne Chance).

Bay filly by Order—Zahra.

Bay gilly by Ormondale—Agnes Virginia (dam of Jacoba).

Bay filly by Peter Onince—Micaela (dam of Care stnut filly by Samson-Flower (sister to Apple Toddy).

Four of the others are the property of John W. Schorr and among them is a brother to John Gund, which is an upstanding bay colt by Peep o'Day—Wy Gyps. Another is a bay colt by Peep o'Day—Evaline, both of these having been purchased from their breeder, John S. Barbee. The third is a chestnut colt by Ultimus—Woodlane, and the fourth is a chestnut filly by Peter Quince, which Mr. Schorr bought from Breckenridge Viley.

The other three in the string are the property of F. A. Forsythe, and they are:

Brown colt by Out of Reach—Balzane (dam of Balloe).

Bay gelding by Dorante—Pepita.
Bay gelding by Out of Reach—Stolen Moments.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

It was Blood Test which bled on Friday, instead Brig's Sister, as reported.

Blackie Daw has now won seven races since his dvent on the turf. Mary H. has won the same number.

Transvaal, sire of Blackie Daw, the Cincinnati Trophy winner, is owned by A. J. Gorey of Covington, Ky. He is in the stud at the Nichols farm, between Paris and Lexington. He has proved such a success in the stud that his book is full. Mr.
Gorey, his owner, formerly raced Old Honesty, one of the most consistent horses of recent years.

As a consequence of the strike of the platers at Aqueduct for grandstand badges, the Westchester Racing Association and the Queens County Jockey Club have arranged for the service of horse plating on the grounds of each association. Platers not employed by the associations or not working regularly for a licensed trainer will be denied admission at both tracks.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

THESE MEETINGS ARE OPEN TO THE WORLD, Write to the Secretary for any further information desired.

F. L. EATON, President, Sloux City, Iowa

The Geneva, Switzerland Tribune's Carnia correspondent of July 4 states that since the first of fully the Italians have gained nearly ten miles to be eastward. Important battles, he writes, are in orgeress between Caporetto and Idria. The Italians with heavy forces are pushing the Austrians back dong the entire front. Despite floods along the sanzo, the Italians have bridged it and taken an Austrian position, moving on Plava. Since the morning of July 2 they have advanced twenty-two miles rom Idersko, southeast of Tolmino. A Vienna distant of the sanze date says: "More desperate inhing has taken olace on the plateau of Doberdo, and official statement issued tonight says that the talians were repulsed after hand-to-hand battling or positions on the plateau. Italian attempts to capture the Austrian position near Woltschach were repulsed. Alpine troops attacking an Austrian antage point were thrown back only after a bitter agarement in which the Italian lost heavily, taies the report."

failed to re-appear. The German official account of the battle off the Swedish island of Gothland admits the loss of only the German mine layer Albartoss. The Deutschland is a battleship of the predreadnought type of 13,000 tons and eighteen-knot speed. Other vessels of the same class are the Hanover, Pommern, Schlesien and Schleswig-Holtstein. They carry four 11-inch, fourteen 6.7-inch and twenty 3.4-inch guns. They were completed from 1900 to 1908. Their peace compliment is 729 officers and men.

JOE MORTON, Secretary, Sioux City, Iowa.

officers and men.

The plea of British scientists that Great Britain organize the country's best scientific brains to combat German ingenuity in warfare found expression yesterday in the official statement that Admiral Lord Fisher, who recently resigned as first sea lord of the admiralty owing to differences with Winston Spencer Churchill, then first lord of the admiralty, has been appointed chairman of "the inventions board" which is being formed to assist the admiralty in relation to naval requirements.

rantage point were thrown back only after a bitter parameter in which the Italian lost heavily, tates the report."

The Russian general staff, according to a dispatch from Reuter's correspondent at Petrograd, reports that a German battleship of the Deutschland class which was leading the enemy's line during Friday's bayle engagement in the Baltic sea was blown up by two torpedoes discharged by a Russian submarine the entrance of Danzig bay. It is added that a derman submarine was rammed by a destroyer and
